From here you will have the opportunity to contemplate the fantastic views of the port, the emblematic Malaga lamppost, and further back, the Coracha and Parador areas. Along with the luminosity, the distribution has been taken care of to create spacious and ingeniously connected spaces, which prioritize the living areas and especially the views of the sea. The apartment consists of a magnificent lobby, exquisitely decorated, from which you access the living room, and from there to the dining room. The spacious kitchen is across the hall, in the central area of the apartment. This space is configured as the "heart" of the house, as it connects and communicates visually, and in a very ingenious way through sliding doors and interior windows, with all the rooms. This apartment has two bedrooms and two bathrooms, the master bedroom also has a huge ensuite dressing room. We highlight the qualities of the recent reform in both floors, doors and windows, these are made of aluminum on the main facade and PVC on the back. Household appliances are top brands, as well as sanitary ware. It has a complete air conditioning system through false ceiling ducts. This property is sold furnished.
